Twin Cities Dermatopathology is honored to welcome Dr. Eugene D. Dulaney as a member of its physician staff. Dr. Dulaney is nationally board-certified in dermatopathology, anatomic pathology, neurology, and clinical neurophysiology. Dr. Dulaney has remarkable credentials, having received a medical degree (M.D.) from Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University, Providence, RI. During his third year of medical school, Dr. Dulaney was chosen to attend the prestigious Charles A. Dana Foundation Clinical Research Training Program at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Philadelphia, PA. Upon his graduation from medical school, Dr. Dulaney completed a one-year medical internship at The Miriam Hospital, Providence, RI. Dr. Dulaney subsequently completed a three-year residency in neurology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA; a one-year fellowship in epilepsy and clinical neurophysiology at The Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, OH; a one-year fellowship in electromyography and neuromuscular diseases at the University Hospitals of Cleveland/Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, Cleveland, OH; a three-year residency in anatomic pathology at Fletcher Allen Health Care (academic medical center), Burlington, VT; and a one-year fellowship in dermatopathology at Fletcher Allen Health Care, Burlington, VT.

Since earning his medical degree, Dr. Dulaney served in a series of key positions within both the academic and clinical arenas, including the following:

- Staff neurologist, Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Cleveland, OH (1997-98).
- Attending neurologist, Cleveland Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Cleveland, OH (1998-2001).
- Attending neurologist, University Hospitals of Cleveland, Cleveland, OH (1998-2001).
- Instructor in neurology, Case Western Reserve University Medical School, Cleveland, OH (1997-2001).
- Attending neurologist, Fletcher Allen Health Care, Burlington, VT (2001-08).
- Assistant professor of neurology, University of Vermont School of Medicine, Burlington, VT (2004-08).
- Instructor in pathology, University of Vermont School of Medicine, Burlington, VT (2008-12).

Dr. Dulaney coauthored several cancer-related articles that were published in some of our more prestigious medical journals. He also authored/coauthored published book chapters on key neurology-related topics, coauthored several published medical abstracts, and numerous poster presentations given at the annual meetings of medical societies, such as the American Society of Dermatopathology. (See the reverse side of this CV for a sampling of Dr. Dulaney's published works.)
